

FOOTBALL LEAGUE CUP 1979-80

In their infinite wisdom, the Football League clubs voted to make the Second Round of the League Cup a home and away two-legged affair, adding an extra match for each club to their already over-crowded fixture lists. This measure earned additional revenue, but at the same time, there were fewer surprises than usual at this stage of the competition. But it was an above average League Cup campaign, which climaxed, unfortunately, in a not too distinguished Final.

In the Second Round, one remembers a glorious goal scored by Glenn Hoddle against Manchester United, and Arsenal's brilliant display when they trashed Leeds 7-0 at Highbury. The Sunderland v Newcastle North-East 'derby' cliffhanger was decided on penalties in favour of the former, who went on to knock out the unfortunate Manchester City in the Third Round.

In the meantime, Grimsby quietly made their way into Round Four, where they achieved one of the major upsets of the League Cup by beating Everton 2-1. They also gave the eventual finalists a run for their money, when they drew with Wolves twice before the First Division club triumphed 2-0.

Yet the real romance of the Cup was supplied by Swindon with the help of their deadly scoring duo, Andy Rowland and Allan Mayes. They were playing away against Arsenal after beating Stoke City, and no one gave them a chance at Highbury against one of the best Cup sides of recent years. But a late equalizer earned them a replay, which was won 4-3 by Swindon after extra time.

And so to the semi-finals, where they met Wolves and won the first leg 2-1. Unfortunately for Swindon fans, the Wiltshire club didn't make the trip to Wembley for the first time since 1969, because they lost the second leg 3-1.

Meanwhile, Nottingham Forest were intent on making history by becoming the first club to reach Wembley for the third consecutive time. They defeated Blackburn Rovers, Middlesbrough, and Bristol City and West Ham after replays. In the semi-final they were paired with Liverpool, a club notoriously unlucky in this competition.

Last year, Forest knocked out Liverpool in the European Cup; this time they did the same in the League Cup.

In the last minute, a penalty was awarded to Forest, and John Robertson didn't make a mistake from the spot: 1-0. The same player scored from a penalty again (!) in the return match which ended in a 1-1 draw when 'super sub' David Fairclough equalized near the end. So Forest were at Wembley again, history was made - whatever the outcome.

Wolves made the return journey after six years, the last time in 1974, when they beat Manchester City 2-1 in the Final. Wolves, led by the shrewd Emlyn Hughes with their tactics masterminded by the managerial duo of John Barnwell and Richie Barker, came to Wembley with a definite plan. They withdrew Peter Daniel alongside Geoff Palmer to mark John Robertson out of the game, put George Berry on Birdies, and the excellent Derek Parkin on Trevor Francis.

Hibbitt and Carr in midfield were told to hit the front-runners with high balls, and young Mel Eves was an old fashioned, although largely ineffective, outside-left.

Against these 'stop the other side play' tactics, Forest played their usual thoughtful, attacking game with Martin O'Neill and John McGovern prominent in midfield. Burns and the suspended Lloyd's stand-in, Needham, easily dealt with the Gray-Richards menace, and it is no exaggeration to say that Forest dominated the match. The match was decided in the 67th minute with a sloppy goal.

High balls put pressure on defences, and one of these hopeful lobs did the damage. Daniel, hard-working and effective, slung a high ball towards Andy Gray, whose path was blocked by Needham. But instead of heading the ball clear, Needham decided to chest it back to his goalkeeper. Shilton, in the meantime, made a dash for the same ball, and his 'call' was lost in the Wembley din.

As the loose ball bounced towards the deserted goal, Gray rushed in and helped it over the line for the only goal of the match - 1-0 to Wolves, League Cup glory and a place in the UEFA Cup next season!

The rest of the second half was a battle between the Forest forwards and the Wolves' defence. But Bradshaw, in goal, seemed unbeatable as he saved shots and headers with every part of his anatomy, playing with great courage and enthusiasm.

The crowd, which paid a record £641,000 for the privilege of being there, seemed satisfied, although, I repeat, this wasn't a great final by any means.

Leslie Vernon.
