

The North American Soccer League

1981

THE year 1981 marked the start of the decline of the NASL, membership dropping from 24 to 20 teams, as Atlanta, Detroit, Houston, Memphis and Rochester folded. The New England franchise moved to Jacksonville, Florida, and the Philadelphia franchise to Montreal. One new team emerged — Calgary Boomers — bringing the number of Canadian teams in the League to an all-time high of five.

While the same overall League regulations remained there was a change in the number of points awarded for a win via the shoot-out procedure. For a shoot-out victory a team was awarded four points as compared to six for a victory in regulation time or sudden-death overtime.

Peter Beardsley, later to play for Newcastle United, Liverpool and England, made his NASL debut during this season for Vancouver Whitecaps. A virtual unknown at the time, Beardsley, in his three seasons with the club, developed into a player of considerable potential.

Unlike Beardsley, Polish international Kazimierz Deyna was already an international star when he made his debut for San Diego Sockers, as was West German international Bernd Holzenbein who signed for Fort Lauderdale Strikers.

Chicago Sting won the Soccer Bowl, defeating New York Cosmos 1-0 in a shoot-out, the teams having failed to score in regulation time or sudden-death overtime.
